PEPP

ZWEIGELT 2018

Cherries, sour cherry compote and spicy hints of black pepper are the first messengers of this wonderful relationship.

He is fresh, youthful, sometimes quite playful, but always crisp on the way.

HOW GOOD WINE FEELS?

Well, like a warm breeze blowing your legs. The sounds of the street musicians blow through the streets. The sun tickles the skin, the soul gets far.

TASTING NOTES

In the nose Weichsel compote and wild strawberries. Fruity and playful! Soft tannin and fine spice on the palate. There is a lot of manual work in our wines! "

Rightly bearing the label of feeling:
On the palate, the empathetic is wonderfully balanced, has a good structure and a nice mineral touch. In the finish, he shows fine spicy underlaid, so you do not forget him so quickly
